Attention is drawn to the following rules :—

1. No candidate will be allowed to enter the examination room unless he wears a clean and decent dress, and, in all cases where good manners require it, a suitable covering for the head ; nor will he be allowed to keep his shoes on unless they are shoes of English pattern, and socks and trousers are worn also.

2. No candidate will be allowed to quit the examination room on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the examination, and candidates arriving after the expiration of that half hour will not be admitted.

3. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination room during the hour of examination, after once quitting it, nor to leave the room, without finally giving up his answer payers.

4. Any candidate detected in speaking to, or in any way communicating with any other candidate will be at once removed from the room, and the circumstance reported to the Commissioner.

5. No candidate will, on any account, be allowed to take into the examination room slates, books, manuscripts or papers of any kind. Any one detected in the violation of this rule or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room, and the occurrence reported to the Commissioner. The candidate will, however, be allowed the use of mathematical instruments for drawing figures or ruling lines.

6. A candidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer papers. Any candidate wishing to ask any question of the Superintendent will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.

7. Any papers sent up without the candidate's name and number affixed will not be examined.

8. Candidates will not be allowed to take any papers, except their question papers, out of the examination room.

9. Candidates are forbidden to tear up papers or to throw ink or papers on the floor. All "spoilt copies, &c.," should be left on the desk where the candidate has been writing.
